

Renewable Energy Head of Distribution

Education: Bachelors in Modern Energy

Languages: English, ASL

Age: 40

Experinced in building solar and wind powered energy.

Lead distrubtor for renewable energy for the nation.

Would love assistance with education on medical cannabis to treat back injury from previous job.

Thomas aims to provide help medical cannabis grow operations with sustanible energy sources as well as benefitting from the medical properties for being a paitent.

Neuroscientist: Mary Smith

Mary is studying the effects of cannabis on brain while also being a patient for the program. She is advocating for ethical and accurate findings for dispensaries, patients, and educators.

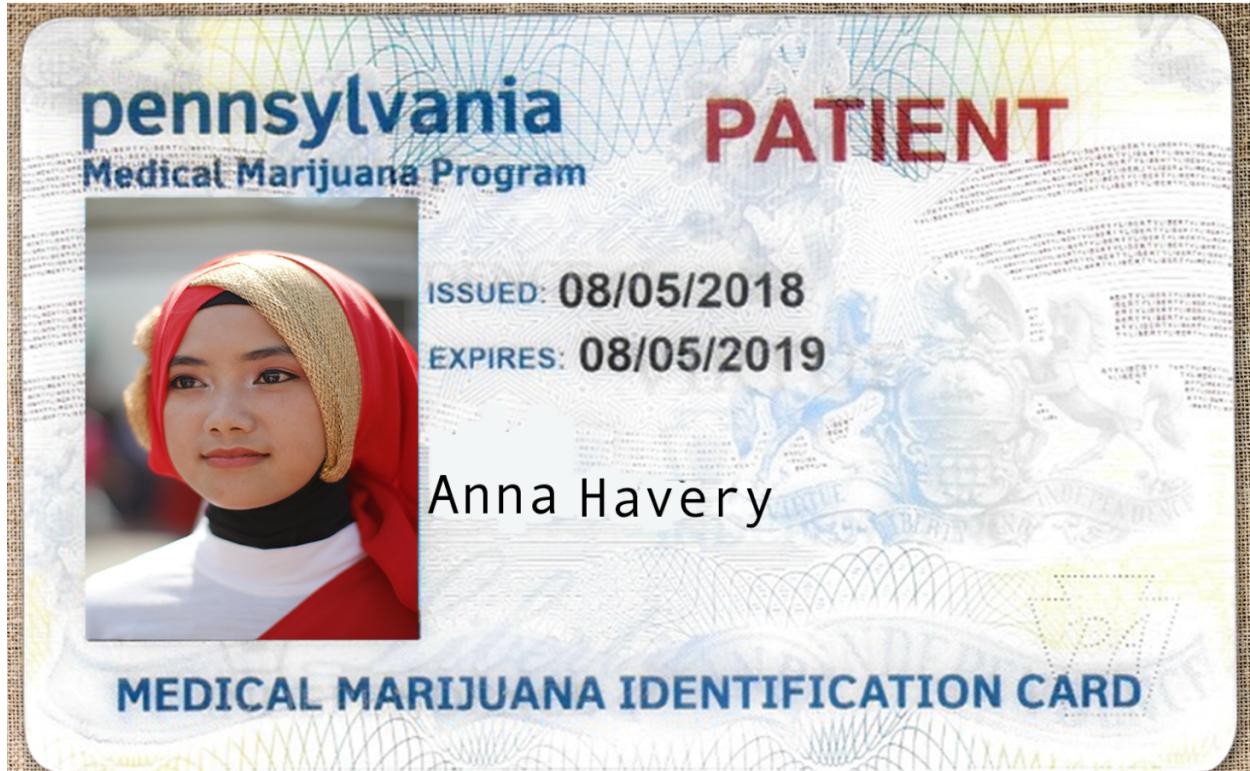

Age: 60

Education: Masters in Neurology

Disproves: Unethical Practice

Goal: Wants to provide education to anyone in need of research on cannabis.

Mary needs help outsourcing to other like minded people to benefit the community by providing positive researched information and risks for the public.

Anna Haverty/Lawyer

Age: 29

Education: Doctorate in Law

Anna Haverty works at private law firm where she advocates for cannabis protective laws on operation and individuals. As proficient she is by getting laws in place and public recognition for promoting renewable energy. Harvey needs someone to help her with more substantial detailed cannabis education to help push more public awarness.